

Who is Dottor Cardoso:

Since the literary character of Dottor Cardoso, important to the transformation of the Portuguese journalist Pereira, was born the project of Diego, Samuele and Matteo, aimed at the creation of the documentary "Rua da Saudade 22", dedicated to the tuscan writer Antonio Tabucchi.

What is "RUA DA SAUDADE 22":

"Rua da Saudade 22" is a documentary film still under construction dedicated to Antonio Tabucchi; interviews with friends, colleagues and comrades of a lifetime, is accompanied by an actual journey through the places that hosted and welcomed him.

From Siena to Vecchiano, his hometown, Genova, Bologna, Firenze, Roma, right outside of Italy, the island of Crete, of which he was an honorary citizen (the city of Chania), in Lisbon, a city that welcomed him after his death, in Paris, where he kept the Fund Tabucchi at the National Bibliothec of France.

From Rua da Saudade 22 winds a path through time, places, literature.

Director and screenplay: Diego Perucci

Camera and editing: Matteo Garzi and Samuele Mancini

Why support the documentary:

Antonio Tabucchi, writer and intellectual among the most active and brightest of our time, he considered himself free citizen of a free world.

Faced with a vast bibliography and many films based on his books and stories, Antonio Tabucchi was awarded many important prizes, both Italian and foreign, fitting right in the Olympus of the greatest writers of the twentieth century. Passed away in march of 2012 in his beloved Lisbon, this documentary aims to introduce the viewer to the figure of Tabucchi, through memory and poetry that characterizes the literature. From a search on tuscan writer, Rua da saudade 22 wants to reconstruct the man.

The entire project has been so far supported by our unique strengths, combined with the desire to return to experience the beautiful images from the three of us lived in recent months.
